

DISTRICT OVER QUOTA

But Columbia Still Lacks $17,500 and County $193,000 in Loan.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The St. Louis Federal Reserve District "has finished the job" in its Victory Loan Campaign. The amount subscribed totals $195,104,000, it was reported to the Treasury Department. Officials here believe St. Louis to be the first district to obtain its quota.

President Wilson today cabled an appeal to the American people to make the Victory Loan "a great popular thanksgiving offering."

With but forty-eight hours remaining to fill its quota Columbia needs only $17,500 to go over the top. Already 740 Columbians have subscribed $288,200 to the Victory Loan. The quota for Columbia is $305,700. Since yesterday Columbia has subscribed $5,550.

Boone County with a quota of $811,100 is $193,000 behind. Subscriptions will have to be raised in the county at the rate of $96,500 daily in order to fill its quota before the loan closes. So far 1,604 Boone County people have subscribed $618,100 to the loan.

The following districts have filled their quotas: Turner, Murry, Judy, Brown, Maple Grove, Linden, Banks, McQuire, Via, Vawter, Grindstone, Turner, Nashville, Ellis, Jones and Christian, Sturgeon, Ashland and Rochepot have also gone over the top.

Hannes Hetzler of the Boy Scouts has sold $16,600 worth of Victory Bonds in Columbia.

CONDUCTOR USES NO SCORES

Oberhoffer Leads Number After Number Without Looking at Music.
Emil Oberhoffer, conductor of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, which comes to Columbia May 17, conducts all of his programs without a score, a difficult feat of memory.

But a full knowledge of just what this really means is possible only to the trained orchestra man who knows the scores himself. Such a man will see and appreciate the fact that not one little cue is overlooked; that the role of every instrument is perfectly grasped and remembered, and that the conductor is really a leader, in every sense of the word.

There are two tremendous advantages which a "scoreless conductor" holds over his confreres who must consult each page; one of these is his freedom to watch every man, and so exert a correspondingly effective personal control; the other is his ability to feel and interpret the score as a whole, knowing the end from the beginning in a manner which is impossible in the usual page-to-page reading.

The acquisition of a repertoire like this—and he knows literally dozens of immensely long scores—means unceasing and highly concentrated labor. During the summer months, which Mr. Oberhoffer spends at his country home near Minneapolis, he spends many hours a day in memorizing new scores and refreshing his mind on old ones.

Scores for the concerts here went on sale today.

SCHEIDEMANN TALKING

German Chancellor Says Allies Are Blinded by Selfishness.

BERLIN, May 8.—Chancellor Scheidemann, addressing the peace committee of the National Assembly today, declared the peace delegates were instructed to make comment and declared that there would be oral discussion of the peace treaty by them. The chancellor charged that the Allies were "blinded by selfish policies."

"Versailles today represents the deepest point in the fall of Germany," he said. "Yes or no can lead us only lower until we face ultimate annihilation. There is no hope of getting up, for if the collateral conditions of peace are in the same spirit as the main conditions we will face the tomb of the German people."

In reply to President Wilson's fourteen points, Scheidemann asked, "What will become of the expression of guaranty mentioned in the fourth point? It disputes Wilson's fifth point if Germany loses her colonies and rights in Africa."

"Count Brockdorff-Rantzau faithfully interpreted the feeling of the empire and the government," continued Scheidemann, "when he said that we would examine the peace treaty with good will. Germany urges the wisdom of a just peace."

FILES SUIT AGAINST CENTRALIA

Wife Shot by Minors Playing in Street With Firearms.

J. B. Blanton of Centralia yesterday filed suit in Boone County Circuit Court against the city of Centralia and Tell Zincer, a minor, of that place, for $1,250 damages for costs paid by him for doctors and nurses when his wife, Mary Blanton, was shot in the leg last November.

Mrs. Blanton also filed suit for $2,500 actual damages sustained by her. Both suits ask that the city appoint a guardian for the Zincer boy.

Both petitions claim that Centralia boys were firing revolvers and other firearms in the streets of that town, although it is forbidden by a city ordinance. A shot from a revolver, said to have been fired by Zincer, struck Mrs. Blanton in the leg inflicting a serious wound.
